Dear Mr Bell,

As I have not been able to discuss the situation regarding the plant patent either by fax or by phone with you. I am enclosing what I would consider to be the answer to your objections/ amendments.

I thought I might have been able to seek your advice in this matter, as it would save time, but I fear that I am going run out of time again for the amendments.

I hope my reply meets with your satisfaction.

Yours truly,

Sandra M Worth Mrs

P.S. Dear Mr Bell,

These are the original letters sent by fax to you on 23-12-2004.

If the papers are still not acceptable would you kindly Fax me upon return so that I can amend.

Yours truly

23rd December 2004.

Dear Mr Bell,

First of all please accept my apologies for not signing the amendments received by you on August 25th 2004.

I would like to point out that I filed under the United States Patent & Trademark Office. Notice of Recordation of Assignment Document. PTAS *102521634A*, which was granted February 25th 2004 and the recordation date was 07/16/2003. I am the sole Assignee of Mr James DEWELT, who is the ASSIGNOR.

Therefore I am claiming the right to sign the application & or any amendment appertaining to the Plant Patent listed under Serial Number 10/619,411 dated July 16th 2003, under section 3.71 clause (1) A single assignee/ An assignee of the entire right, title and interest in the application or patent being re examined who is of record.

I am also requesting an Extension of the time period for response under 37 CFR 1.136(a) as the documents were not received by my office in the UK until the 15th December 2004.

I have also tried several time to telephone the numbers you have kindly listed for me to no avail and leaving messages with both your self and Mr Andrew Wang.

Yours sincerely,
